Answers

1. Each guard would have heard Paul's preaching, teaching, and testimony. Some would have become Christians, and the gospel rippled out beyond the ranks of the guards into Caesar's household, where others became Christians. See Philippians 4:22.
2. From the human perspective, Paul had run into some very adverse circumstances after having a successful ministry. Thrown into prison, Paul's travels were cut off and he was chained to a Roman guard. It was in this situation that God's purposes were being advanced; the gospel was making its way into the imperial ranks. The prison became a pulpit. Also, the Christians in Rome were emboldened by Paul's position.
3. Yes. Regardless of bad motives, Christ was preached. Paul could say, "Christ is preached; and in this I rejoice..."
4. Because he looked at the big picture, knowing that God was in control and that He was able to turn tragedy into triumph. Paul believed what he had written in Romans 8:28.

Discuss / Consider

1. Do you dread adverse experiences, or do you look for God's greater plan in them?

3. Have you ever emboldened others because of your strong stand for Christ?

3. Paul did not want to deny Christ, even if he were to be tortured for this faith. He prayed that he would be delivered from bringing any dishonor to the name of Christ.
4. See Philippians 1:20-26. Dying would mean being with Christ, a great desire for Paul; but if living would benefit the Philippians, then he would desire that.
5. A lens focuses and magnifies. Paul wanted his life to be a lens for Christ – so people would see Christ, not Paul. His desire was that Christ be magnified, whether by his life or in his death.

Discuss / Consider

1. Do you pray for God's deliverance from certain hardships? How does God answer you? Do you pray for deliverance from dishonoring the name of Christ?

Answers

- Rome
  - The early 60s A.D
  - Nero
  - Because disunity was emerging in the Philippian church and Paul wanted to deal with it before it grew.
- No. Refer to Ephesians 2:8-9, Titus 3:5 and Isaiah 64:6. By God's standard of purity and perfection, even the best of our good works are as filthy rags, and they mean nothing concerning salvation. There is only one way to be saved, and that is to believe in Christ's death for you. See Acts 16:30-31.
- Deliverance or solution, as in Philippians 1:19, when Paul was referring to his position as a prisoner.

Discuss / Consider

- Have you prayed about a specific deliverance in your life? How was your prayer answered? What did you have to do to bring it about?

- God wants to see problems removed that cause disunity in church fellowships. If your church has a problem, what is your responsibility? See Psalm 133:1.

Challenge

- Consider God's will and His good pleasure as He works in your life. Does this motivate you to live on a higher level?

4. According to this passage, what kind of a world is out there?
5. A good dose of Philippians can be preventive medicine for a church. What does this mean?

5. Why did Paul plan to send Timothy to the church at Philippi?
6. What does it mean that all seek their own, not the things of Christ?

Answers

1. Paul's concept was that he was a drink offering and the Philippian believers were the sacrifice. He based this on the Old Testament sacrificial system, where a container of wine was poured out on the regular sacrifice, a sweet aroma to the Lord (Numbers 15). The drink offering was not the sacrifice, but an addition to the sacrifice. Paul viewed the Philippians as the big sacrifice, and he viewed himself as only an addition.
2. That nothing should be done through conceit, but in lowliness of mind, esteeming others better than yourself.
3. When someone knows that you have a genuine concern for their wellbeing, they are motivated to work with you.

2. How can you demonstrate a genuine concern for fellow believers?

Challenge

1. View yourself as a sacrifice, or even as a drink offering. Think of all that this could mean as you relate to others.

2. Discuss the sickness of Epaphroditus.

3. How were the believers to receive Epaphroditus?

4. Do you have to become a martyr to receive a martyr's crown?

5. Why does Paul use the phrase, "you all," more in this epistle than in any of the others?

Answers

1. No, it can be for the glory of God. See John 9:3. Yes, it can be disciplinary. See 1 Corinthians 11:28-30.
2. Epaphroditus got sick in the line of duty, giving himself to the point of risking his life.
3. See Philippians 2:29.
4. No. Epaphroditus will be rewarded in line with his motives and attitudes, and so will many Christians who have sacrificed their health and well-being for the sake of the gospel.
5. Because this exhortation for unity in the Philippian church was meant for the whole church to practice.

Discuss / Consider

1. Discuss a self-giving attitude. As you look around you, do you see some believers being excellent examples of this attitude? What makes them different from others? Consider the extent of your self-giving attitude.

2. Some Christians believe that a sick person should seek healing. Why, then, didn't Paul have a healing service for Epaphroditus? We know from Acts 19:11-12 that God used Paul to bring healing to many. How did Paul deal with the sickness of Epaphroditus? What does this say to us today?

Challenge

1. Look around you and see the quiet Christians who are self-giving. Hold them in high esteem.

  - b. Evil workers.

  - c. The mutilation.

  - a. Dogs

  - b. Evil workers

  - c. The mutilation

2. How is the true believer described in contrast to the legalistic false teacher?

Answers

1. a. The Judaizers referred to the Gentiles as dogs, and now Paul turns the tables, using the same term. Scavenger dogs of the cities were always yelping and fighting and attacking the passers-by. That's the way the legalistic teachers are, both yesterday and today.

b. The Judaizers of the first century worked hard to gain proselytes, but their work was evil, taking away from a Christ-centered faith. Legalism appears more spiritual because rules are kept, but the legalistic Pharisees of Jesus' day were denounced as white-washed tombs because they looked good on the outside, but were full of dead bones within. They were hypocrites, leading people away from the truth.

c. Paul is playing on the word "circumcision," which means "cut around." Here he says "mutilation," or literally "cut off." Paul likened the Judaizers to the pagans of heathen religions who cut and mutilated themselves during religious rites.

2. God intends the true believer not to be a legalist, but a liberated Christian. Liberated Christians know how to use their liberty properly.

Discuss / Consider

1. Discuss each aspect of the liberated Christian: those who worship God in the Spirit, those who rejoice in Jesus Christ, and those who have no confidence in the flesh.

2. What does it mean, "Don't get turned off by repetition?"

Challenge

1. Are you a liberated Christian in every positive sense of the term? Consider where you stand right now, and how you could attain a higher standard.
